Monument Where First Yankee Met Death

NINE MEMORIALS TO MARK INTERESTING PLACES FOR U. S.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Erection of nine monuments in Europe to mark the places of special interest as to historical importance in the service of the American Expeditionary forces is contemplated in the memorial plans of the war department for which President Harding has recommended legislation by congress in addition to the more than 100 special monuments prepared.

As announced today by the department, these monuments of artistic design would mark the following places: Where the first American soldier was killed in Europe; where the first American was wounded at the front; area of the German raid on the First Division, November 2, 1917, during which the first American soldier was killed in action and the first American soldier was captured; first sector held by an American division acting as a unit; where the Eleventh Engineers fought at Cambrai; sector held by the Sixth Engineers Corps, March 21, 1918, during the German offensive; important actions of the 369th, 370th, 371st, and 372nd American regiments while serving with the French; points near Cassarsa, Italy, where the infantry was engaged; town of Hamel, captured with the assistance of units of the 33rd Division on July 4, 1918.

BONUS FOES MAY DELAY MEASURE

Revision on Veteran Bill
By G. O. P. Would Hold Up Plan for Time.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2—Opponents of the bonus and the sales tax in congress are grasping at every strait that might delay soldier bonus legislation.

The house ways and means committee, acting under pressure from republican house leaders who are behind the strategy for delay, today inaugurated a complete revision of the bonus plan in the hope of postponing action on the measure.

House leaders, including majority leader Mondell who had previously informed advocates that the bill would be delayed at least ten days, supported the movement. The tentative agreement made yesterday eventually to report the five-way bonus plan to the full republican membership of the house has not been altered, it was stated, but an entirely new form of a bonus proposition will be drafted to provide an alternative scheme if the republican house leaders plan for putting thru the original bonus bill without the sales tax should fail.

Elimination of the cash bonus feature of the five-way plan is part of the new scheme advanced by the bonus foes. After another stormy session of the republican members of the ways and means committee a sub-committee of six was appointed with instructions to prepare a bill without any cash payment plan and with increased insurance and a bond scheme submitted.

To Call in Experts.

The sub-committee held a meeting this afternoon and after two hours of discussion it was decided to call in treasury and banking experts during the next few days and to complete the bill probably next week. While these maneuvers were under way, bonus and sales tax advocates were busy preparing to capture control of the situation from the republican house leaders. The veterans bloc met and decided to circulate a petition forcing a republican caucus early next week. Sales tax advocates announced that when the caucus is held they will submit the sales tax financing plan that was rejected by the ways and means committee to the entire republican membership of the house. They are confident that it will be adopted if the party caucus is permitted to vote on the plan.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader of the upper house of congress, entered the bonus and sales tax fight today. In a letter to a constituent Senator Lodge favored speedy passage of the bonus bill and endorsed the sales tax as the only sound method of financing it.

Current Wage Clause In State Labor Gets Tested at El Reno

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 2.—The first trial in which the current rate of wages provision of the Oklahoma labor law ever went to a jury was decided recently in El Reno against Emmett L. Witcher, a sub-contractor, who was convicted of violating the law and fined $50, the minimum provided by statute, according to Claude S. Connally, state labor commissioner. An information was filed against Witcher by the county attorney of Canadian county acting for the state labor department.

Witcher was convicted of having paid a laborer $2.40 a day while the prevailing wage in the community was $2.20, Mr. Connally said. Witcher served notice of appeal.

Many previous charges of a similar nature have been filed against contractors in the state engaged in public work, Mr. Connally continued but always a compromise has been effected in which the contractor agreed to abide by the law.

Although the case was appealed, the state labor department feels that the law has been vindicated," Mr. Connally declared. "The United States supreme court has already sustained a similar law."

'Invitations' Sent Out For Execution of Harvey Church

(By the Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 2.—Alleging that the hanging of Harvey Church in Chicago tomorrow is to be a "public spectacle for which invitations have been issued," Attorney Frank J. Terrell of Chicago, appeared here this morning as "an American citizen" to lay before Governor Small another plea for clemency for the condemned man.

The hanging of Harvey Church, the lawyer said, has become a political issue in Cook county. "It is part of the campaign for sheriff of Chief deputy Laudenheimer," he declared.

George D. Suttons, the governor's secretary, to whom Mr. Tyrrell presented his card, refused to permit him to see the governor, and directed him to go to Will Colvin, superintendent of the division of pardons and paroles.

Crowd of Witnesses Appear in Trial of Four Francis People

A crowd of Francis witnesses came to Ada yesterday to tell what they knew of a case in which four persons of that vicinity, three women and one man, were charged with assault and battery or conspiracy to cause assault and battery on Mrs. M. D. Starkweather, also of Francis.

Dollie Jacobs, one of the girls in the case, entered a plea of guilty at Francis recently to the assault and battery charge. She was assessed a fine and paid it.

Lois Stevens, Alma Sharp and Brad Norman were brought before Justice of the Peace H. J. Brown yesterday and charged with plotting the alleged fray in which Mrs. Starkweather is said to have been attacked. Because of insufficient evidence on the part of the state, Justice Brown dismissed the cases. About 25 witnesses appeared in the hearing.

Women's Auxiliary of C. of C. Requests Rooms for Visitors

Mrs. Tom Hope, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce, issued a call today for all home owners in Ada who have spare rooms to phone authorities at the Teachers College and have them listed to care for the boys and girls who began arriving in the city yesterday to attend the second annual basketball tournament.

"Many more rooms are needed and unless all who have spare rooms have them listed today, many students will be without rooms tonight. It is very urgent that all do this at once. Those who let students have rooms may expect to get pay for their use," she said.

Lady Rhodda To Be First Woman Seated In the House of Lords

LONDON, March 2.—The petition of Lady Rhodda to sit in the House of Lords was granted by the committee of privileges of the House of Lords today. If she takes the seat awarded her by this ruling she will be the first woman to sit in the upper house of the British parliament, as Lady Astor was in the lower house.

Lady Rhodda is the daughter of Viscount Rhodda, Great Britain's war time floor controller, who died in 1918 from an illness brought on by overwork. His only child was the daughter, wife of Sir Humphrey MacWorth.

VET CAN BORROW ON BONUS BOOST

Former Soldiers Could Get Half of Total Adjusted Federal Payment.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—Unanimous agreement to eliminate the cash feature of the soldier's bonus except in the case of men whose adjusted service pay would not exceed $50 was reported today by the special sub-committee of republican members of the house ways and means committee to which the whole bonus question was referred yesterday.

In lieu of cash for the other service men, it was agreed to add new provision to the bonus bill under which the men accepting adjusted service certificates could borrow immediately on the certificates from banks a sum equal to 50 percent of the total adjusted service payments, computed at the rate of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 a day for foreign service.

Chairman Fordney said this plan was expected to meet general approval since it enabled the soldier who may be in need to obtain cash immediately after the issuance of the certificates and would relieve the treasury of any large cash payments during the emergency refunding operations which must be carried out in the next two years and would place no additional tax burden on the public.

Many details of the proposed amendments to the bonus bill remained to be worked out and Mr. Fordney said it probably would be a week before the plan was ready for submission to the entire republican membership of the committee.

He declared that there would be provisions regulating the rights of the holders of certificates and naming the amount of interest which the banks could charge for loans.

It was explained that the $50 cash payment was retained in the bill because the men entitled to only this amount would undoubtedly prefer the cash to a 20-year certificate. It was estimated that the cost to the treasury in paying this amount would be around $16,000,000.

RECORD FOR COLD SNAPS IS BROKEN BUREAU REPORTS

Most Severe March 2 in 32 Years Follow Blizzard Weather in State.

WARMER, PREDICTION

Fair Skies With Rising of Temperature Cheering Oklahoma Today.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 2.—Low temperature records for March 2 were shattered this morning when a minimum of 6 degrees above zero was recorded in Oklahoma City. The United States weather bureau here announced this morning was the coldest March 2 in 32 years history of the bureau. With one exception, March 1, 1913, when a minimum of 4 degrees above zero was recorded, today was the coldest March day on record.

Breaking up of the storm late yesterday and clear skies throughout the night were responsible for the record low temperatures it was said at the weather bureau. Dodge City, with a temperature of ten degrees below zero, was the coldest point in the United States, according to the weather bureau reports. Eight and one-half inches of snow covered western Kansas, the report from Dodge City said, and highways are impassable.

Fair weather for the next few days and rising temperatures was the promise held out at the weather bureau. The mercury was expected to creep up above the freezing point today and drop again tonight to between 10 and 16 degrees in the north half and 16 to 22 degrees in the south half.

Telephone and telegraph companies today reported that wire communications which had been badly impaired by the storm were again near normal. For the first time since Monday, the Associated Press today was able to get news dispatches into Hobart, Ada, Frederick and Lawton.

Increase of Ninety Million in Debt of Public Is Reported

(By the Associated Press)

On February 28 the total debt stood $23,478,667,789 as compared with $23,388,544,236 on January 31. The increase in the debt was largely accounted for officials explained, by the issuance of approximately $601,000,000 in treasury notes during the month while government securities retired during February approximately $511,000,000.

SITE OF PYRAMID CHOSEN TONIGHT

Ada Ozark Trail Boosters To Select Location for Highway Guidepost.

At least two locations in the city have been advanced as prospective sites for the Ozark Trails pyramid to be erected under the auspices of the Good Roads Motor club, N. B. Stall, president of that organization, announced this afternoon.

These are Main and Broadway and Main and Mississippi, where the new stretch of paving connecting the city's principal business district and the Ada-Alien gravel road joins the thoroughfare extending out to East Central College.

Which of these places will land the pyramid will be determined at a meeting at 7:30 of Good Roads Motor club members in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

This meeting, it is believed by members of the local road booster's club, is one of the most important from civic improvement and city advertising standpoint, that has been scheduled in Ada for some time. Ways and means for raising the city's $1000 quota for marking its part of the Stratford-Texarkana branch of the Trails, for the erection of a pyramid, and for incidentals connected with getting the road will be discussed.

"We expect a good turn-out of motorists tonight. Enthusiasm seems usually high and we're certain to get results," Stall said.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

AN OLD MAN'S TESTIMONY:—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.—2 Timothy 4:7.

A BRIDE FACTORY.

The showing of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, as a trainer of girls for matrimony, and as an institution from whose doors tripped 233 brides within five years, is inspiring.

In every normal girl there is the raw material from which a housekeeper may be made, if the spirit is willing. But the material is quite raw in many cases when the bride is confronted by a baffling array of duties and problems as the head of a household which must run smoothly or run amuck.

Training of children by parents encounters the obstacle of disinclination to drive, or with a firm hand to lead, the child whose temperament is opposed to the path of preparedness. An institution, dealing with individuals as the physician in a hospital ward deals with cases, to get the right result, should be successful as a trainer of girls for wifehood.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead that he does not find more pleasure in witnessing the captivating struggles of his unschooled bride in the school of practical housekeeping than he could get from the meals cooked in obedience to all of the laws and by-laws of a cooking school?

Nevertheless the bride who knows that the vitamins will be boiled out of the vegetables if the water is cold when they are put into it, and that cooking eggs as they should be cooked, whether fried, boiled or scrambled, is not a project to be entered upon jauntily by the beginner, starts out with the hang of domestic science, which is interesting and is a thing apart from household drudgery, which can interest nobody.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Uncle Joe Cannon in a recent interview says the incident in his career that brought down the greatest abuse and ridicule on his head was an appropriation of $10,000 to enable Prof. Langley to build an aeroplane. Some lambasted Cannon for wasting the money of the tax payers while others considered it too ridiculous for sane men to consider a minute. However, Prof. Langley convinced Cannon's committee of the possibility of air flight and constructed a machine that did fly a short distance, but it fell into the Potomac and the inventor was so ridiculed that he died of a broken heart. However, using his researches as a foundation, it was only a few years until the Wright brothers were flying and now an aeroplane is almost as common as an auto. Langley was finally vindicated a few years ago when his old machine was brought out by an aviator and made a successful flight, proving that Langley had succeeded but did not realize it. Without the far sightedness of Joe Cannon aviation might have been many more years developing. No doubt the sight of a plane flying over the nation's capitol brings to Cannon a feeling of satisfaction when he remembers what critics said about him some years ago.

The News wants to welcome to Ada the boys and girls who are to take part in the basketball tournament. They represent the best schools in this section and they themselves, generally speaking, constitute the best of the various student bodies. We hope everyone has a good time in this city, that he makes friends with all the other boys and girls, and that another year all who do not graduate will come to see us again. We wish all could carry away a cup, but since this is not the case, we want all to enjoy the stay and not feel badly if they do not win. After all, the game's the thing.

The Literary Digest quotes from many financial journals and newspapers in industrial centers to show that business is improving. With a large manufacturing plants in the east going again, the buying power of the nation will increase and conditions will get better in all sections including those almost or entirely agricultural.

We wonder if Hepburn is still running for governor or if he has decided he wants to the county attorney again. It was a great show as long as he was the only actor, but he seems to be playing about third fiddle by this time.

Celina, Texas, is one place where everything is so peaceful that no city jail is needed. Finding the jail of no service the city daddies recently sold it.

A recent report states that there are 5,000 vacant flats in Chicago. Evidently a back to the country movement is under way in the windy city.

One thing we may be thankful for is that we did not live further west when this norther hit. It was cold enough here.

T. O. Collins says there is one thing he cannot eat for breakfast and that is supper.

Next? Ardmore has cooled down and has Okmulgee.

Women More Enduring.

(Lawton Constitution)
The term "weaker sex" applied to women appears to be a misstatement if statistics compiled from the census returns are to be relied on. It is shown that mortality at all ages is higher among men than women. A portion of the contrast may be due to the fact that males are subjected to accident to a greater extent than females, yet that would hardly account for all the difference.

In 1920 there were 1,758,308 widowers and set off again that number were 3,917,625 widows, seeming to show that on the average wives live much longer than their husbands. While the average expectation of life among both men and women has increased the census gives no indication of definite lengthening of the span of life. There are those who live to 100 years and over but it is by reason of unusual vigor. The extreme limit of life has not been increased. By care of one's health one may live far beyond the three score and ten but there is a limit at which the body wears out and it seemingly is not higher than it has been for ages.

We are accustomed to hear complaints of the isolation imposed on farmer's wives. Professional upholders often sympathize with them but the fact that the most favorable mortality in the country is found among women living in the rural districts would indicate that concern for the woman who lives separated from her neighbors is misplaced, that her life is not shortened because of distance from the whirl. The rural classes regardless of sex enjoy a much lower mortality than those living in the cities. There has also been a decided improvement in infant mortality and the encouraging feature lies in that mortality among babies in cities is improving.

The showing of longer life among women than with men may not be due to greater vitality but to conservation. It is true that the average woman is not subjected to the same strains as her husband. Her life is more secluded. She does not permit herself to wear out so rapidly. Thus, though her sex may be termed the weaker, by care it is made the more enduring.

Charleston (S. C.) News: A recent writer in a New England paper said recently: "I saw a sign in a store which is worth shouting from the housetops. It isn't very classy, but it is mighty expressive and particularly apropos at this time. It reads, 'Naw—it ain't hard times coming—it's soft times going.'" Perhaps that reason is accounting for many persons today in this part of the country and elsewhere who cannot believe, or will not believe that their soft times are over, and who thru some peculiar reasoning of their own seem to think it their duty to make things harder than they really are. It is in large measure the contrast between what was and what is that is making cowards and weaklings of men and women everywhere, who sulk over the passing of the easy pickings of the postwar days and whimper over the necessity of earning by a fair day's work a fair day's pay. It is such persons who helped to disorganize conditions when the big days were on, who helped to further confuse the issue when the readjustment processes began, and who today are putting every possible obstacle in the way of a return to normal progress and normal living. They have learned the trick of laziness with all its sequence of unaccomplished duties, unfinished, and, because they could "put it over" when things were abnormal they whimper and complain because they cannot repeat the feat now. They rail against the "hard times," but in reality they are railing against the passing of the soft times, and until they are able to see the difference between the two they will continue to confuse the issues and set back the return to healthy prosperity.

SUCCEEDS WHERE DOCTORS FAIL

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Often Does That.—Read Mrs. Miner's Testimony

Churubusco, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I wish to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I didn't take it. I thank you for this medicine and if I ever come to this point again I do not want to be without the Vegetable Compound. I give you permission to publish this letter so that all women can take my advice."—Mrs. FRED MINER, Box 102, Churubusco, N. Y.

It's the same story over again. Women suffer from ailments for years. They try doctors and different medicines, but feel no better. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you can see its value in the case of Mrs. Miner.

That's the truth of the matter. If you are suffering from any of the troubles women have, you ought to try this medicine. It can be taken in safety by young or old, as it contains no harmful drugs.

SCHOOLS SHOULD LEARN VALUE OF PRESS, HE SAYS

CHICAGO, Mar. 2.—Public education will soon follow other professions and adapt publicity to its needs, according to R. G. Jones, superintendent of Cleveland, O., schools before the Alumnae of Teachers College, Columbia University at their annual dinner here last night.

"The school system will either periodically take an inventory of school affairs and make public its profit and loss, or it will proceed on something like a daily balance system and keep the public informed," Mr. Jones said.

"Publicity is neither ineffective nor effective save when it is misused or abused. Too long the public schools and their management have been closely associated with the municipal management, disregarding the fact that municipal affairs are political by birth and breeding, a school system by reason of its duty, as is scared as a religious faith."

"The press is the most human of institutions. The press will come to understand us better when we put our business to keep the press advised of what the schools are doing and trying to do. The press is engaged in selling news and if we give the press news which is marketable, the resulting publicity should be mutually profitable. The success of such a policy lies largely in the frankness and openness of the schools in their dealings. Confidence begets confidence as truly here anywhere else. The public schools have an open door to the newspaper representatives.

KNOWING GAME NECESSARY IN SAVING SOULS

"After Faith, What?" was the subject of a sermon last night, delivered with a special appeal to members of the church, by Rev. C. R. L. Vawter, evangelist who is conducting a revival at the First Christian church.

Two special musical numbers, a vocal solo by Miss Clarke Reaves and a harp solo by Miss Margery Thompson was rendered.

"The greatest essential asset to a Christian is grit, back bone—the courage to do right," the evangelist asserted. "It takes more courage for a man to ask another man to become a Christian than it does to talk politics, business or social affairs. They are afraid that the one approached will say 'you are not better than I am.' But we are only good because we have a Savior to help us."

"Some have the courage but they lack knowledge; they must know how. In the business world a man must know his affairs in order to hold his job. More important than knowing business is the knowledge or how to get to the City of God. If the Christian does not know how to tell a man to be saved he ought to know how to find it in His New Testament. Temperance and patience mean getting in the game and staying in it until the end."

A big song service will open the meeting tonight.

Miss Hale Entertains.
Miss Geraldine Hale entertained members of the Chopsticks Club informally with a "hamburger fry" at her home 129 North Hope avenue last Saturday evening.

The guests arrived at an early hour and the early part of the evening was spent in playing games. Later, each girl drew a small slip of paper from a box on which was written a poem that indicated the duty she would be expected to perform during the evening, in the kitchen.

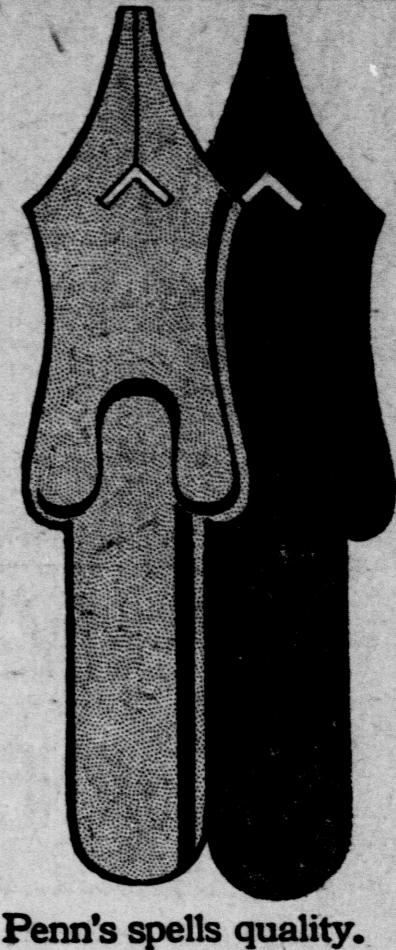

After a time of hard work, mingled with laughter, each group of girls brought forth the "eats" they had prepared for the feast. These consisted of hamburgers, candy and popcorn.

Those enjoying the evening were Misses Alta Montgomery, Dolly Gay, Anna Laurie Hall, Verna Graham, Velma Gatewood, Louise Meaders, Jeanette Bobbitt, and Geraldine Hale.

TRAINING TO STAKES

Growing Vegetables and Flowers Upright Saves Space.

Better Results Are Obtained From Most Plants by Keeping Them Off the Ground.

A good supply of large and small stakes is not a bad guess for the cottage garden. There are some vegetables that will give better results by being trained to stakes than if allowed to spread out on the ground. Often this is not only better for the vegetables, but it saves the space for planting some other crop. The same is true of some flowering plants that otherwise might spread over several feet of space. Most plants look better when properly staked and kept pruned. Sun

SQUADS RESTING BEFORE OPENING LONG TOURNAMENT

Although delayed for a time on account of the teams being unable to get here, the second annual East Central basketball tournament started off today, and after getting loose from preliminary delays and troubles, jumped into the beginning of a two day battle for district honors by teams from all parts of the district.

Coaches for both boys and girls teams over this district were here today with their teams and final encouragement was being given to the squads this afternoon. Games scheduled for this morning were postponed until later because some of the teams could not get here on account of bad weather. Others were not expected to come at all, which will necessarily make a change in the schedule. In as many cases as possible new teams that were not listed will be put in to take the places of teams which filed application for an entry but did not get to come.

It was not expected that this afternoon many teams would be on the floor as new arrivals were busy getting established in their rooms and making arrangements for the long battles. Officials assisting Coach Thompson of the Teachers College were re-organized today and made ready for preliminary games. As teams are eliminated and the tournament develops into a contest between certain schools athletic authorities will be able to complete their schedule and lay definite plans for the remainder of the meet.

It is expected that by tomorrow morning most of the preliminaries will be completed and the team ready to jump into the second preliminaries tomorrow afternoon. The tournament will continue until Saturday morning, at which time championship games probably will be played.

INDIAN YOUTHS STILL FOND OF DISTANCE TROT

LAWRENCE, March 2.—In keeping with tribal customs on their native reservations, long distance running is the favorite pastime of the Indian boys competing for the track team at Haskell Indian Institute here. Of the sixty-three candidates who answered the first call for track men, thirty-one felt the mile and two mile runs were the events to which they were best adapted.

"The large number trying out for the distances is due to the fact that during the past year there has been an influx of Navajo students from New Mexico and Arizona," explained F. W. McDonald, track coach. "On their native reservations these students had often left their schools on Friday evening, going to their homes a distance frequently of forty miles. They ran practically all the way. On Sunday evening they would return to their schools, arriving there in time for their classes on Monday morning."

Of the sixty-three candidates, only six are letter men; Kipp, high point man in hurdles, jumps and weights last year; Osage, quarter and half-mile; Morrison, high and broad jumps; Miller, mile and two mile; Archuleta, pole vault, and Childrens, jumps and weights. They have been working out for the past three weeks.

Many of the boys will continue training until July 4, Coach McDonald said, in order to be in top condition for tribal picnics in Oklahoma on that date. The Cheyenne-Arapaho relay race at Cantonment, Okla., is one of the most important.

"The Indians of these two tribes watch with interest the development of their youths on the track and field while in school," the coach said. "They do this, not from the standpoint of relishing Haskell victories but because they look forward to the boys' home-coming which generally is just before the big tribal track meet. Last year, of the four members of the Haskell relay team, Luther Bringewood and Benjamin Osage belonged to the Arapaho and Cheyenne tribes, respectively."

'JAZZ DANCERS ARE MONKEY FOLKS PRANCING TO DEVIL'S ORCHESTRA'

NEW YORK, March 2.—Is the American dance craze mentally dangerous?

This question was debated in psychological and terpsichorean circles today when dispatches from Paris stated that influential journals and famous academicians had indicted jazz as a "hypocritical form of obtaining illicit pleasure."

"The modern dances are as soothing to the populace as rocking is to the infant," declared Doctor A. A. Brill, chief of the clinic at psychiatry in Columbia university.

"Jazz is to our national life what impurity is to a woman—prostitution," affirmed Reverend John Roach Stratton, the famous fighting pastor of Calvary Baptist church.

George Washington loved to dance—why this outcry? demanded Louis Chaif, high priest of the dancing hierarchy, who once tripped a toe in the czar's ballet.

"Not For Sweet 16"

"I don't care how much people shimmie, if they only take the proper position and cling to a few forms of etiquette," exclaimed Canon William S. Chase, of the Methodist church.

"Jazz is not for sweet 16," said Laurette Taylor, the actress, starring in a play that depicts jazz evils.

"Jazz is a manifestation of the speed mania of the ages," declared Frank M. Thomas, Miss Taylor's leading man, who plays the role of jazz opponent.

Doctor Brill, who gained renown in scientific circles when he translated Freud into English and who is claimed national authority on psy-choanalysis, said that animals and birds danced.

The new dances represent substitute for the normal gratification of the sex instinct in the form of pleasure motion," he continued.

"Viewed in this light, the modern dances must be considered beneficial to our present social system. People won't sit home and read the Bible all the time," he added, with twinkling eyes. "There must be some outlet, some diversion for the populace."

"There is no doubt that the closer contact in the modern dances offers an opportunity to those individuals who look for sex everywhere. But this might happen and has undoubtedly happened even before the new dances came into vogue."

Back to Monkey Morals.

Doctor Stratton, who is waging a fight against decadence in modern life, said he was not surprised that some scientists—who say they descended from monkeys—should see no harm in jazz.

"When we have monkey men we have monkey morals," he continued. "Jazz music and dancing is reversion of the savage instinct. Jazz is the spirit of evil the devil's orchestra. I have observed young women and men lowered morally by its influence."

Doctor Stratton, however, sees encouraging handwriting on the wall of time.

"There are faint signs of a return to society sanctity," he averred. "The fact that French academicians and journalists denounce jazz as mentally dangerous is a healthyomen."

Commander G. C. Evans, whoing almost as much of the world's wet surface as they did in war times when they sailed the seven seas with troops and supplies. The Canadian Pacific fleet is to be increased this spring by 130,000 tons of passenger liners, six in number, of which four are destined for the Atlantic and two for the Pacific. The new express service to the European ports of Cherbourg and Hamburg will be started in May with the opening of the St. Lawrence, providing closer connection via Canada between Chicago and the middle west with Paris and Berlin because the St. Lawrence route has the advantage over the southern route, passengers being only four days out at open sea. The Empress of Scotland will be the largest steamship plying between Canada and Europe. Three additional new boats of the popular type, 16,000 tons each, will ply between Montreal and Liverpool.

There will be a fortnightly service to the Orient made possible by the addition of two new steamers even larger than the Empress of Russia and Empress of Asia which have been the largest passenger vessels on the Pacific Ocean. The probability is that the two steamers, Empress of Canada and Empress of Australia, will call—either east or west bound—at Honolulu. All the steamers of the Canadian Pacific Oriental fleet will call as before at Yokohama, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Manila and train connections between Chicago and the ports of Montreal and Quebec will receive special attention.

These are the sort of men who are operating the big new steamers of the Canadian Pacific and never

XXIV. VIEW OF THE EMPLOYEE

The obvious solution of the government's employment problem is the standardization and readjustment of salaries. To be scientific, such readjustment must rest upon a careful reclassification of the service. Conditions are very different now, both in regard to the functions of offices and the cost of living, from what they were when positions in the government service were first classified and salaries assigned to those positions.

It struck me that an interested party in this inquiry into how the government conducts its business was the employee himself. He ought to know from actual daily experience something about the mechanism of the national business and the relations between the working force and employer.

It was clearly impossible to talk to the more than 500,000 men and women who work for the government, but I learned that between 50,000 and 60,000 of them are banded together in an association called the National Federation of Federal Employees. It is a regular labor union, and is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. It includes all classes of government workers, technical and scientific men, as well as clerks and unskilled workers.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

"WHAT NO MAN KNOWS"

Under the merciless attack of the prosecuting attorney, the girl wilted and told the whole story of how she was bribed to lie in her testimony. The verdict sent a chronic thief to jail, and let the world crash around the ears of a worthy man. To his rescue came love, inspiring wonderful love. That's only part of the story of "WHAT NO MAN KNOWS"—Clara Kimball Young's latest picture. It's a story with as many facts as a glittering gem. It's chock full of that human interest that puts the "move" in movies. Be sure to see this charming picture to be shown.
